Fuck Modern Tech

Go Retro

Fuck sp*tify... fuck n*tflix.
I'm gonna get a VHS player.

I'm so tired of subscription based services.

What happened to men
wearing crop tops?
Why did that stop being a thing??

Is that why things are terrible now?

Collecting cassettes has made me appreciate music
more than sp*tify ever could....

From homemade mixtapes to new cassettes bought off bandcamp to 25cent thrifted cassettes.

The increase in surveillance technology is scary. Have you heard of the ring? That camera doorbell security system?? I can't go for a walk around the neighbourhood without seeing one. I want to scream.

Don't even get me started on Al*xa or S*ri or Ggle home or w.e. Maybe I don't want corporations listening in on me?? Don't invite these malevolent entities into your homes.....

Warning

⚠ The internet of my youth wasn't necessarily safer but it felt cooler? Less corporate and more personal webpages. Less tiktok teens and more anonymous forums.
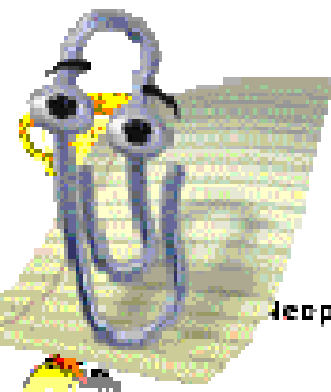

[Fuck] [Web] [3.0]

Check out neocities. Make a personal webpage! Look at other people's creations. I promise, there are cool and exciting things on the internet that will make it feel like it's 2006 again in a good way.

ANARCHY Now!

How many iPhones are there now? Why? They like keep removing ports too

People spend like a months rent on a phone? My next phone will only have the snake game as an app and t9

And a Winnie the Pooh cellphone charm

This isn't advice, it's just a frustrated ramble. You can do with it what you want. But please, uninstall Chrome and use Firfox
